BOARDS & COMMISSIONS VACANCIES

Historic Preservation Commission

City Council is seeking applications from those interested in serving on the Historic Preservation Commission. The commission meets four times a year, typically on a designated Thursday in January, May, September, and November.

There are three seats expiring [Libbrecht, Ward, and LeMaster] at the end of May 2026 and there will be three new 3-year terms available. City Council will review the new applications and make the appointments at the Tuesday, May 26, 2026 City Council Meeting.

There is also one vacant seat available on the commission with a term set to expire May 2028.

The Historic Preservation Commission consists of seven residents of the City of Seward, and general Seward area spanning from Lowell Point to the Tern Lake Junction on the Seward Highway, who shall be appointed by the council. At least four seats shall be filled by residents inside Seward city limits. Application forms are available in the Office of the City Clerk and on the City Council Meetings webpage.
